

COUNCIL on AGING
YOUR SOURCE AND VOICE ON SENIOR ISSUES

IN THE NEWS....

Date: April 23, 2008

Publication: Charlotte Observer

Charlotte.com

Thursday, Apr 24, 2008

Posted on Wed, Apr. 23, 2008

Council on Aging hosts conference

KATHY HAIGHT

What makes a community senior friendly?

That's the focus of the Council on Aging's annual conference May 6 at the Levine Senior Center in Matthews.

Keynote speaker is Elinor Ginzler, the AARP's leading spokesperson for independent living and caregiving. She and others will discuss ways to make Charlotte more livable for seniors in the areas of housing, caregiving and transportation.

The Levine Senior Center is at 1050 DeVore Lane in Matthews. Conference registration of $95 is due by May 5. To register, go to: www.charmeckcoa.org or call 704-512-6551.

For conference details, call Kellie Visker, 704-391-5216, ext. 204.